

New: Expert-Led Inspiration

21 February - 16:50 – 17:20

at Research Theatre (Exhibition & Networking Area)

What does it take to break through challenges, stay focused, and keep growing? Dr. Drew Weissman and Dr. Carl June know the answers—not from theory, but from experience. This open discussion is your chance to ask them directly.

They'll share how they've navigated obstacles, stayed resilient, and grown as leaders in their field. It's about real conversations, honest advice, and the lessons they've learned along the way.

Date: 21 February

Time: 16:50- 17:20

Location: Research Theatre (Exhibition & Networking Area)

Moderated by Dr. Stanley Riddell, this open discussion invites your questions and ideas, fostering an open dialogue designed to address the challenges and opportunities that come with a career in research.
